Dear Vickie and Jim,

Thank you for the nice letter that came yesterday. Your week-end in New York sounded wonderful and you certainly and took in a lot of different things. I worried about you in New York and you were brave to go out at night and go to Central Park. Sandi was happy to get card from you.

I just finished reading Jaws. The book quite boring I thought and I just sort of skinned it. Jeannie thought it was so good she could hardly put it down. I am sure movie has more action in it.

The baby is one year old today. Time certainly does fly.

Yesterday some old friends from Minneapolis came by so we took them out for dinner last night. Dad was disappointed in not getting to watch the Monday Night football game.

We are getting new screen doors for the two doors down stairs so with the house newly painted it will look very nice.

I hope your plans go thru for Thanksgiving. Sandi and Dick hope to adjust their time with you so they can see you in Alexandria. Do you work in the Hoffman Bldg. Jimmy?

By for now

Love, Mom.
